“We negotiate, we collaborate and we litigate—we do what it takes to achieve the best results for a client’s unique situation.”

—Teresa Evans

Teresa Clark Evans understands family law affects nearly every aspect of her clients’ lives, from their finances to their emotional welfare. “Our mission is to help them navigate the process and reach an equitable solution,” says Evans, past chair of the Dallas Bar Association Family Law Section. “We are their advocates.”

Evans has extensive experience in complex property divorce cases, highly litigated custody matters, adoptions, uncontested divorces, and prenuptial and post-marital agreements. Named to the Super Lawyers or Rising Stars list every year since 2008, she is known for her litigation skills and achieving significant results for her clients.

Because our firm also practices in bankruptcy, business law, real estate and other fields, it provides a wealth of easily accessible resources and talents. “Everyone at the firm is on the same page,” she says. “We want to help our clients move forward to a happy, healthy future.”
